

Challenge Sheet 2

Complete the following sentences by using the keywords from the box below.

1. The direction of travel taken from the compass is called a
2. A point near a control which is obvious and easily found, but which gives a precise starting point for the last part of a leg is called the
3. A long feature such as a path, fence or stream which can followed easily on the ground is called a
4. The technique you use to keep track of your position on the map is called
5. Fast navigation using rough compass and obvious features to keep contact is called
6. A technique for finding a point on a long line feature by deliberately veering to one side of the point so that you know which way to turn on hitting the feature is called.....
7. A competition to find as many controls in any order in a set time with penalties for lateness is called a
8. A line feature which is easy to follow is called a 9. A line on the map (but which is not visible on the ground), which shows the shape of the land is called a 10. Counting double strides to measure distance is called

keywords

attack point - handrail - contour - pacing - line feature fine O - bearing - thumbing - rough O - aiming off - score event